

SING A SONG

By: Joe Buchanan

If you ask me do I believe in miracles
I'd say yes I do, yes I do
Well how can I believe in what I cannot see
Well my friend, I can see you

It's a little less than fate and a lot more than chance
That brings beautiful strangers our way
So yes I believe in miracles
And I believe they happen every day

C'mon, Sing. Sing a song
To the one that has loved you for so long
Sing, Sing a song
To the One that has loved you for so long

L'chu n'ran'na l'Adonai, nariah l'tzur yisheinu.
N'kadma fanav b'todah, bizmirot nariah lo.

C'mon, Sing. Sing a song
To the one that has loved you for so long
Sing, Sing a song
To the One that has loved you for so long

If you ask me do I believe in miracles
I'd say yes I do, yes I do
How can I believe in what I cannot see
Well my friend, I can see you

It's a little less than fate and a lot more than chance
That brings beautiful strangers our way
So yes I believe in miracles
And I believe they happen every day
